

SAMPLE LETTER [PROMOTION – ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR TO FULL PROFESSOR]

Date

Dear Professor _____,

The Department of _____ at the University of California, Irvine, is currently reviewing Professor _____'s record in order to determine whether it would be appropriate to recommend him/her for promotion to the rank of Professor. For such advancement, the University of California requires letters of evaluation from experts in the field, and it has been suggested that you might be able to provide assistance in this assessment. The opinions of outside scholars carry critical weight in our decision-making process.

Of particular interest to us is your candid and specific evaluation of Professor _____'s work to date, its influence and impact, and its national recognition. Specific items to focus on include: the quality of published work, the standing of the venues in which the work appears, role in collaborative research, level of productivity, track record of graduate student mentoring, and the leadership demonstrated with the advancement of new ideas and engagement in professional activities. It would be helpful if you provide an assessment of Professor _____'s relative standing in the field compared to named peers at the same career stage. Finally, we would appreciate if you could comment on whether Professor _____ would receive this promotion at your university.

External to UC - Acceleration

You may not be familiar with our rank and step system. The advancement under consideration is from Associate Professor, Step __ to Professor, Step __. As such, it is considered an accelerated promotion, as the normative period spent as an Associate Professor, prior to promotion to Professor, Step I, is six years. Subsequent steps have a normal period of three years. Your recommendation regarding such an advancement will be valued.

Internal to UC - Acceleration

As a University of California faculty member, you are familiar with our rank and step system. The advancement under consideration is from Associate Professor, Step __ to Professor, Step __. Your input regarding such a move will be most helpful.

Although the contents of your letter may be passed on to the candidate at prescribed stages of the review process, your identity will be held in confidence. The materials made available will lack the letterhead, the signature block, and the materials below the latter. Therefore, material that would identify you, particularly your relationship with the candidate, should be placed below the signature block. In any legal proceeding or other situation in which the source of the confidential information is sought, the University does its utmost to protect the identity of such sources.

We know that writing a detailed assessment takes valuable time. If you are unable to provide an evaluation of the type requested, I would appreciate hearing from you at your earliest convenience. If you are willing to assist us in this assessment, we would like to receive your letter by _____.
